St. Louis Metropolitan Medical Society
Representing St. Louis Physicians for Over 175 Years!

Since 1840, the St. Louis Metropolitan Medical Society has been working to support the practice of medicine in a strong physician-patient relationship where physicians and their patients can make a difference.

Our mission is to support and inspire member physicians to achieve quality medicine through our focus on physician leadership, health care and building strong physician-patient relationships.

If you are a physician, find out why you should join the Medical Society.

If you are a patient, we can help you locate a physician.

Together, we can strive for the best in health care.
